TRINITY

REACHING GUESTS

Trinity Lutheran ChurchSchool has purchased and is implementing a new texting service – Text in Church - in hopes to reach first-time guests and returning visitors to our church in a timely manner and through a more conducive platform. Through research, we learned that of the 23 billion texts sent each day, there is a 98 percent open rate. In addition to reaching first-time guests and returning visitors, we also can use this service to reach out to congregational members and ministry teams. The service, which also has email capabilities, is connected to 563-334-4907.

AMEN: IT'S THE TRUTH

During Pastor Golter's travels around Trinity Lutheran ChurchSchool, he poses the question to students: What does the word Amen mean? The response comes quick and boisterous: The truth!!

The hallway banter comes from Pastor Golter's chapel service sermon last week, which focused on Revelation 22:20-21 and the Hebrew word Amen, which is best summed up by Luther as a word that doesn't need to be translated - the meaning is clear.

If you get a chance during this weekend's Divine Service, check out the passage in Revelation. Be careful, however, when reaching for a pew Bible.

The blue-covered NIV pew Bibles have been replaced with new ESV Bibles, which have the same translation to what is read during our Divine Service and are very similar in color to our hymnals – Amen!!

In addition to our new Bibles, Trinity also will be donating 60 of our blue-covered Bibles to Zion Lutheran in LaValle, Wis. – Amen!! Zion Lutheran lost everything due to rain water that filled their building. The rest of the blue-covered Bibles will be going to an Iowa District East missionary – Amen!!

In an annual Trinity tradition, this year's third-graders also will be receiving Bibles during Sunday's 10:45 a.m. service – Amen.

Whether it is in the school hallways, through God's Word or the Divine Service, the word Amen is something we need to continue to hear and say – and that's the truth.

WELCOME

If you are visiting Trinity Lutheran ChurchSchool for the first time, we would like to welcome you.

If you desire more information about our faith family, please make note on the welcome card in the pew rack, or text Pastor Golter, the Senior Pastor, for more information.

CHOIR COMING

On Saturday, Oct. 27, Trinity Lutheran will be hosting the amazing Concordia University Chicago Kapelle choir for an evening of praise through song.

While we have this wonderful opportunity of hosting this event, we also need help with housing members of the choir.

If you have extra room that you would be willing to share to host a choir member, please contact

JaNan Less at jananless76@gmail.com or call 563-209-7979.

Stay tuned for more details about this special opportunity.

BIBLE STUDIES: Check out the back page of the Highlights for the different Bible studies happening at Trinity this week.
