

Amy Orsenigo and Ethan Cerami

We have made Winchester our home over the last 14 years after moving from New York. We have two children, Lily and Eddie. Lily will be a senior at Smith College in the fall and Eddie will be in eighth grade at McCall Middle School. Over the last 8 years, Amy has taught at the Neighborhood Cooperative Nursery School, which is in FCCW. Ethan recently started a new job at Johnson and Johnson where he works on cancer research using AI. We also have a mini Australian Labradoodle, named Marty, who we consider part of the family. When we are not working, we enjoy cooking, reading and going for long walks with the dog, especially around Horn Pond. We are happy to be joining the church.

Emily Daly

Emily Daly lives in Winchester with her husband Conor and their 6-year-old son Bo and 4-year-old daughter Frances. She is a lawyer who recently started a new role as Director, Global Investigations at Alnylam Pharmaceuticals, her first in-house role after spending 12 years at Goodwin Procter. She grew up outside of Philadelphia, went to Vanderbilt, and then spent 3 years in Washington DC before moving to Boston for law school at Boston University. Outside of work she enjoys traveling, trying new restaurants with Conor, skiing, reading and hiking. She has been to 48 states, with only Alaska and Hawaii left to go. She is excited to officially join the FCCW community.

Erin Hasselberg

I grew up in Peoria, Illinois, and graduated from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign before moving east for graduate school at Harvard School of Public Health in 2001. I've lived in NYC, DC, and Boston since. Raised Presbyterian, I've long been drawn to UCC and Congregational churches and have been a member of Old South Church since 2014. I moved to Melrose in 2016 and have two children—James (born January 2020) and Kate (born January 2023).

After becoming a parent, finding a closer church community became important to me. I first came to FCW in November 2022 and immediately felt the congregation's care, especially when my daughter was born early and diagnosed with a genetic liver disease. Professionally, I've spent the past eight years at Vertex Pharmaceuticals leading a Patient Support Operations team, following a career in global health supply chain management.

FCW has truly felt like home, and I'm grateful to Rev. Will, Rev. Maeve, and Rev. Maggie for so warmly welcoming me and my family.

Ryan Mylrea & Megan Janeway

Ryan, Megan, Dustin (7), Fiona (5), and Connor (1) began attending FCCW in 2024. Before that, they lived in Malden, MA, and Ann Arbor, MI. Ryan grew up in Wisconsin; and Megan grew up in Connecticut. Megan is a physician at Boston Medical Center, and Ryan is a consultant for public health agencies. Fiona will join Dustin at Lincoln Elementary in Winchester this fall. Our family enjoys hiking, camping, and playing on the beach. We look forward to raising our kids in and being more involved with FCCW's nurturing, supportive community.

Lauren Taylor

Lauren Taylor lives in Winchester with her husband Evan and their 9-year-old daughter Elinor and 6-year-old son Lucas. Lauren is a school psychologist for Cambridge Public Schools. Lauren grew up in Acton-Boxborough and went to Northeastern University for both undergraduate and graduate school. Outside of work she enjoys running, trying new restaurants, skiing, going to the beach and spending time with her family. Lauren is excited to be part of the FCCW community!
