Scholarship Information Fall/Spring 2021-2022

Dear Student:

Thank you for applying for my District 10 Legislative Scholarship. As your Delegate, I am happy to do all that I can to help empower you to reach your goals. I commend you for furthering your education and wish you every success in your future endeavors.

*As you may be aware, the numerous applications we receive annually far outnumber the funds allocated to each Delegate. For this reason, please submit to me in one envelope, no later than May 3, 2021 all of the following information. Only applicants who reside in the 10th Legislative District are eligible to receive this scholarship as they are awarded by District.

- 1. A completed application with your MHEC ID# (if you do not have this, please contact The Maryland Higher Education Commission)*
- 2. Proof of residence (telephone bill, cable bill, utility bill) we just need to see the address part, please do not send the entire bill*
- 3. Two letters of recommendations from non-family members (teachers, counselors, advisors or job supervisors)*
- 4. An official (sealed) transcript to include your most recent grades*
- 5. An essay of at least 250 words (Please see attached application)*
- 6. If your major is not available at ANY Maryland Institution and you plan to use this scholarship at an out-of-state school, please provide a copy of your Application for Unique Major from MHEC which you can obtain from their website.

Application Must Be Postmarked by May 3, 2021
