

The Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission would like to invite you to a Courageous Conversation speaker series event on Thursday, March 5, 2020 at 10:00 AM at the Regina Public Library – Regent Place Branch.

The speaker will be RCMP Assistant Commissioner Mark Fisher.

Assistant Commissioner Fisher is the Commanding Officer of the Saskatchewan RCMP. He is a 25-year veteran who has served in various RCMP Detachment Command functions. In 2007, he was seconded to the Criminal Justice Reform Secretariat for the Province of British Columbia as the RCMP Liaison Officer to the Provincial Government. In 2011, he was appointed Chief of the Oak Bay Police Department. In 2014, Assistant Commissioner Fisher assumed the role of Officer in Charge of Nanaimo Detachment, the largest RCMP detachment on Vancouver Island. In 2016, Assistant Commissioner Fisher transferred to "D" Division as the Criminal Operations Officer -Core Policing where he had oversight of Provincial Detachment Policing, Support Services, Community and Aboriginal Policing, Major Crime Unit, Traffic Services and the Provincial Reviewers. Assistant Commissioner Fisher took official command as "F" Division's Commanding Officer on December 5, 2018 and is the 34th Commanding Officer of the Saskatchewan RCMP.

Assistant Commissioner Fisher's Courageous Conversation will be about mental health, with a special focus on post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

Please note that this event will be held at Regina Public Library – Regent Place Branch, located at 331 Albert St.

There are 60 available spots for the event. Please confirm your attendance by return email by Tuesday, March 3, 2020.

The Commission aims to accommodate the accessibility-related needs of those attending our events. If you need sign language interpretation, an alternative presentation format, or other reasonable adjustments to the meeting space to ensure you can participate equally in this event, please contact Adam Hawboldt at (306) 229-7169 or by email at adam.hawboldt@gov.sk.ca with your request by as soon as you can so that, where possible, arrangements can be made.