

the GOAT HILL MUSEUM STORE

Operated by the Alabama Historical Commission

For Immediate Release
November 10, 2017

Holiday Open House

Thursday, November 16 and Friday, November 17

8:00am – 4:30pm

The Goat Hill Museum Store, Montgomery, Alabama (inside the historic Alabama State Capitol at the Union Street entrance)

Mulled cider and refreshments will be available to shoppers while they browse the store's large selection of unique holiday gifts. The Goat Hill Museum Store is the best place to find Alabama-made gifts, specialty food, souvenirs, holiday ornaments, and more!

The poster is divided into two main sections. The left section features a festive image of a pine branch with white cotton bolls and gold ornaments, set against a dark green background with white snowflakes. A small logo at the bottom left of this section reads "GOAT HILL MUSEUM STORE". The right section has a dark green background with gold text. It announces the "Holiday Open House" at the "Goat Hill Museum Store" from "November 16 - 17, 2017", with hours from "8:00 a.m - 4:30 p.m.". It encourages visitors to "Please Join Us!!" and lists activities: "Enjoy mulled cider and cookies while browsing our large selection of Alabama made products and unique holiday gifts. . .", "Book signings by Noted Alabama authors", and "Demonstrations by Alabama Artisans". It also notes the location: "Located in the Alabama State Capitol, a historic site operated by the Alabama Historical Commission". At the bottom, it provides the phone number "334-353-4969", the "ahc" logo, and the website "ahc.alabama.gov".

About the Alabama Historical Commission

Located in historic downtown Montgomery at 468 S. Perry Street, the Alabama Historical Commission is the state historic preservation agency for Alabama. The agency was created by an act of the state legislature in 1966 with a mission to protect, preserve and interpret Alabama's historic places. AHC works to accomplish its mission through two fields of endeavor: Preservation and promotion of state-owned historic sites as public attractions; and, statewide programs to assist people, groups, towns, and cities with local preservation activities. For a complete list of programs and properties owned and operated by the AHC, hours of operation, and admission fees please visit ahc.alabama.gov
