In connection with Alabama's Bicentennial Celebration
more than 4,000 students (grades K-12) used a variety of art techniques and media to create mini portraits.

The 150 works on display depict significant historical and contemporary Alabamians.
The students' writings about their inspirational subjects add delightful interest to the works.

The Alabama Arts Alliance originated this exhibition as the result of 14 professional development workshops offered in 2017 & 2018 throughout the state in cooperation with the Alabama Bicentennial Commission.

This project is funded in part by grants from the Alabama State Council on the Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts, and The Daniel Foundation.
