

PRESS RELEASE:

On March 3, 2020, Carlisle Syntec Systems announced a new partnership with AAdvanced Building Products, an independent sales rep agency which has expanded their sales territory to include the Chicagoland area.

AAdvanced of Chicago has opened a new office in Oak Brook, IL. They also represent Carlisle SynTec Systems in Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky, with current offices in Carmel, IN, Beachwood, OH and Louisville, KY.

AAdvanced brings 23 years of experience as a manufacturer's representative of single ply products. Tom Averitt, Jeff Smith, Jason Clayton and the rest of the AAdvanced Team have demonstrated the ability to provide exceptional sales leadership and technical support of single ply roofing systems.

Jason Clayton is the managing partner for the Chicago area and will be relocating from Columbus, OH in the near future. Frank Arevalo, formerly of USG Securock has joined the company as an Outside Account Representative. AAdvanced is working to build their local Chicago-based team, which will be completed in a short time frame. The Covid-19 pandemic has obviously caused some delays.

Carlisle and AAdvanced will continue to work hand-in-hand with their current Distribution Partners; Bone Roofing Supply Inc., ABC Supply Co. Inc., and Lakefront Supply.
