

CRCA Agenda - NEW Codes – Chicago, Illinois & ICC
Marriott O'Hare Hotel, Chicago/Rosemont
March 26, 2020

---

|                   |   |
|-------------------|---|
| 7:00am – 8:00am   | Check-In/ Continental Breakfast  |
| 8:00am – 8:15am   | WelcomeMark Duffy, CRCA's 2020 President & Rod Petrick,NRCA Chairman of the Board-Elect  |
| 8:00am – 9:15am   | IBC, IECC 2018 Building Code &amp; Energy Code RoofingSpecific SectionsMark Graham, NRCA's Vice President, Technical Services laysthe groundwork for today's program with an overview of the 2018International Building Code and International Energy ConservationCodes, with a roofing specific look at the requirements.  |
| 9:15am – 9:30am   | Break   |
| 9:30am – 10:45am  | International Building Code, InternationalEnergy Conservation Codes – ContinuedMark Graham, NRCA's Vice President, Technical ServicesThe definitions, technical requirements including anoverview of the new ASCE 7-16 wind uplift requirements that werenot previously in the Chicago Codes, and will be new in 2020. Thepurpose of this program is to get the industry ready to complyAugust 2020, when permit applications to the new code becomesmandatory.                                |
| 10:45am – 11:00am | Break   |
| 11:00am – 11:45am | Chicago's New Building Code &amp; Roofing Specific Sections –Mark Graham, NRCA's Vice President, Technical ServicesBill McHugh, CRCA Executive Director &amp; CRCA's TechnicalCommitteeIn Chicago and Illinois, there are new options for ReroofingApplications for both residential and commercial occupancies asdefined in the Energy Codes. There are several exceptions fromthe base code that lead to complying with the code requirements.Learn them at this fast-moving session. |
| 11:45am – 12:00pm | Closing Comments.  |