The Forms You Need to Know
3 hrs. CE, course #06286

This course reviews the most widely used TREC and TAR forms needed to conduct real estate transactions. Included are various sales contracts and a wide range of addendum. This course teaches the proper use and completion of these forms and provides a comprehensive view of the types of contracts available for use in real estate transactions. It will also cover how to handle updates and changes to contract forms, along with other related documents and addenda. The intent of this course is to provide insight on the importance of using correct form(s) to ensure a successful transaction for the agent and client.
