

Updates & Trends in Special Education with Q&A Session

Date: Wednesday, May 16th

Time: 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Easttown Library - Arronson Room
720 First Avenue
Berwyn, PA 19312

Join us to hear about current trends in special education areas with Caryl Oberman, attorney for parents in education law.

For almost four decades, Caryl's practice has concentrated on the legal needs of persons with disabilities and their families, and of gifted students. She is a member of the Executive Board of the PA Bar Association's Education Section, and chairs that section's Special Education Committee. Caryl is also a Hearing Officer for the Office of Vocational Rehab and the Bureau of Blindness and Visual Services. She has served on numerous boards and has been an adjunct professor at several Philadelphia area universities.

This meeting is for parents and caregivers only.
