Join Martin Vanderhof and his wacky extended family living their unconventional lives in 1930s New York City. Trouble arises when the one "normal" member of the family, granddaughter Alice, falls in love with the boss's son.

Come ready for an evening of laughter as the two dysfunctional families navigate the engagement of their two children. The groom's "normal" family learns too much about the bride's "eccentric" family and an explosive comedy ensues. Will the young couple survive? There will be many hilarious moments as we find out!
