

Understanding the Details of the North Carolina Lien Law

Wednesday, November 9, 2016

Start Time: 2:00 PM EST

Member Price: $99 for the first logged on computer & $69 each additional computer

Are you and your employees up to date on the many changes in North Carolina's Mechanic's Lien Law? Are you doing all the right things to secure your right to get paid? This will be an in-depth look at the Mechanic's Lien Law in North Carolina that many of you have requested. Join us for this conversation. There have been many changes over the past several years and dealers are still trying to sort out how to deal with these. What changes do you need to know about? What notices must you provide to protect your company in preserving your lien rights? What tips can you learn from the experience of others? We will discuss these topics and answer your questions.

Mr. Vann will discuss:

- Notice of Contract and Notice of Subcontract Requirements
- North Carolina Lien Agents and Required Notice
- Liens on Real Property and Liens on Construction Funds

Speaker Information:

James Vann is known to many BMSA dealers. His law practice concentrates on construction law, creditors' rights, business law, planning and succession, and civil commercial litigation. He has handled many Mechanic's Lien Law issues for lumber yards in the Carolinas. Through the family business, James learned at an early age the value of sound business judgement. When representing creditors, business and corporate clients, James strives to consider business and economic issues, as well as the legal issues.
