

Course Description

“DIY Spa Treatments” Is designed to provide participants with introductory knowledge on how to make a variety of spa treatments that would be suitable for gifts, to retail, or to use in treatments for clientele. Safety information for ingredients as well as indications/contraindications will be covered. The specific treatments would rotate periodically as the course timing pertained to the seasonal changes.