

Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

February 12, 2023

Welcome to all who are gathered for worship! If you are a visitor, we are glad to have you with us and we hope you will come again.

Living in Times of Liminality. Our worship today centers on the story of Rahab who helped Joshua's army conquer her hometown of Jericho. Having heard of the Lord's mighty deeds, Rahab came to believe in the one true God. At a liminal point in her life, she risked everything because of her faith, not knowing if her actions would bear good fruit or not.

Communion: As Lutheran Christians, we believe that Jesus Christ is present in the sacraments of Baptism and Communion through the power of the Holy Spirit. As we gather around the Lord's table for communion, everyone is invited to come. All baptized Christians are welcome to receive communion. Those not receiving communion may come forward and receive a blessing.

Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, who makes all things new,
whose mercy endures forever.

Amen.

Trusting in God's mercy, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Holy One, source of our renewal,

we confess that we are wrapped up in sin,
and cannot free ourselves.

We have not practiced your righteousness.

Our hearts have turned away from you.

For the sake of the world you so love,

forgive us,

that we may be reconciled to one another for the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

Thus says our God:

"The former things have come to pass and new things I now declare."

God's mercy makes us new.

We are forgiven in the name of ☩ Christ our Savior.

Amen.

Children's Time

First Reading: Joshua 2:1-21

The first reading is from the second chapter of Joshua.

Then Joshua son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went and entered the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab and spent the night there. ²The king of Jericho was told, "Some Israelites have come here tonight to search out the land." ³Then the king of Jericho sent orders to Rahab, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, for they have come to search out the whole land." ⁴But the woman took the two men and hid them.^[a] Then she said, "True, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from." ⁵And when it was time to close the gate at dark, the men went out. Where the men went I do not know. Pursue them quickly, for you can overtake them." ⁶She had, however, brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax that she had laid out on the roof. ⁷So the men pursued them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords. As soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

⁸ Before they went to sleep, she came up to them on the roof ⁹ and said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land and that dread of you has fallen on us and that all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before you. ¹⁰ For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea^[b] before you when you came out of Egypt and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. ¹¹ As soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in any of us because of you. The LORD your God is indeed God in heaven above and on earth below. ¹² Now then, since I have dealt kindly with you, swear to me by the LORD that you in turn will deal kindly with my family. Give me a sign of good faith ¹³ that you will spare my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them and deliver our lives from death." ¹⁴ The men said to her, "Our life for yours! If you do not tell this business of ours, then we will deal kindly and faithfully with you when the LORD gives us the land."

¹⁵ Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the outer side of the city wall and she resided within the wall itself. ¹⁵ Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the outer side of the city wall and she resided within the wall itself. ¹⁶ She said to them, "Go toward the hill country, so that the pursuers may not come upon you. Hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; then afterward you may go your way." ¹⁷ The men said to her, "We will be released from this oath that you have made us swear to you ¹⁸ if we invade the land and you do not tie this crimson cord in the window through which you let us down and you do not gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your family. ¹⁹ If any of you go out of the doors of your house into the street, they shall be responsible for their own death, and we shall be innocent, but if a hand is laid upon any who are with you in the house, we shall bear the responsibility for their death. ²⁰ But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be released from this oath that you made us swear to you." ²¹ She said, "According to your words, so be it." She sent them away, and they departed. Then she tied the crimson cord in the window.

Word of God, Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

Psalm: Psalm 119:1-8, read responsively by verse

¹Happy are they whose way is blameless, who follow the teaching of the LORD!

²Happy are they who observe your decrees and seek you with all their hearts,

³who never do any wrong,
but always walk in your ways.

⁴You laid down your commandments,
that we should fully keep them.

⁵Oh, that my ways were made so direct that I might keep your statutes!

⁶Then I should not be put to shame,
when I regard all your commandments.

⁷I will thank you with a true heart,
when I have learned your righteous judgments.

⁸I will keep your statutes;
do not utterly forsake me.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] ²⁷“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ ²⁸But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell.

³¹“It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ ³²But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

The Affirmation of Faith

Let us affirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel or be seated as you prefer.

Prayers of the Faithful

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is

Preface

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.
By the leading of a star he was shown forth to all nations;
in the waters of the Jordan you proclaimed him your beloved Son;
and in the miracle of water turned to wine he revealed your glory.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly are you, God of pow - er and might; heav - en and earth are filled with your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is the one who comes in your name. Ho -

Thanksgiving at the Table

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:

Blessed are you for the birth of creation.

Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.

Blessed are you for your promise to your people.

Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.

Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.

Blessed are you for your Son Jesus, the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit. Come among us. Bless this meal. May your Word take flesh in us.
Awaken your people. Fill us with your light. Bring the gift of peace on earth. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

At the railing you may kneel or stand as you choose. You will first receive the bread from the pastor or Assisting Minister. If you wish to receive gluten free bread, they will have it available. The Communion Assistant will pour wine into your cup unless you are drinking grape juice. As you return to your seat a basket is provided for disposal of your communion cup.

Announcements

Ash Wednesday and Lenten Dinners – Ash Wednesday, February 22, services will be held at noon and 7:00 pm.

Lenten Soup & Bread Suppers will begin on Wednesday, March 1, 2023 at 6pm, followed by a short Lenten Worship. The theme for our time together will be This is My Body. Together we will explore how Jesus lived in his body on earth and invites us to take care of—and embrace the goodness of—our own bodies. Each week highlights a different story from Jesus' life and connects it to shared human experiences—like growing up, taking naps, or drinking water. By engaging with these stories through a broad lens of embodiment, This is My Body seeks to inspire curiosity, wonder, and awe in all ages. We hope that folks from every generation will join us for this time of table fellowship, conversation and worship. Signups for soup and bread are in the Narthex.

Rise Against Hunger Meal Packing, Saturday, March 25th: We are excited to announce that Good Shepherd will be hosting a “Rise Against Hunger” event to pack a thousand delicious healthy meals that will be given to local nonprofit food organizations. Opportunities to sign-up as a volunteer or make a financial gift are available through our website. If you are not able to sign-up online, please contact the office. We will be glad to help you!

Blood Drive at Good Shepherd - Good Shepherd will be hosting a Blood Drive on Tuesday, April 11th, from 2:00 to 7:00pm. The need for blood is constant and only volunteer donors can fulfill that need for patients in our community. Nationwide, someone needs a unit of blood every 2 to 3 seconds and most of us will need blood in our lifetime. To make an appointment, use the link on our website or contact the office for assistance. If you would like to serve as a volunteer, please contact Allison Radwick or Pastor Heidi.

The Blessings Box: The Blessings Box is located on LCGS's drive and is replenished daily with nonperishable food, household items, and personal supplies. Built as an Eagle Scout project, the Blessings Box has become a significant part of the congregation's ministry to the community. Donations are collected weekly and come not just from members of Good Shepherd but also from neighbors.

This Fall a second Blessings Box was established at the Coatesville Public Library. Overflow donations to this “satellite” box are brought to the church. And when that box is low on supplies, members help to fill it up. If you would like to contribute to this ministry, simply bring your donations to the church.
