Arrests

Malicious Wounding of a Law Enforcement Officer [LEO] – On February 11 at 4:12PM, officers responded to the Summerhouse II Condos located in the 1900 block of Gableridge Turn in Woodbridge (22191) to investigate a stolen vehicle. Officers received information that the vehicle was in the parking lot of the above area. The investigation revealed the accused had taken an acquaintance's vehicle without their permission earlier in the day from a location in the Dumfries area. When officers arrived in the parking lot on Gableridge Turn, the accused was located with a different vehicle belonging to another acquaintance. As officers attempted to detain the accused, he drove off, dragging two officers for a short distance. Both officers were able to separate from the vehicle as the driver continued in a reckless manner, striking another vehicle before fleeing the area. One of the officers involved was treated at an area hospital while the other officer was treated at the scene, both sustained non-life threatening injuries. Following the investigation, officers obtained multiple arrest warrants for the accused, identified as Gideon OWUSU Jr. On February 12, officers observed the accused return to the area where a traffic stop was attempted. The accused disregarded the officers and fled, leading to a brief pursuit which was discontinued as the suspect continued southbound on I-95. A short time later, officers were notified that the accused had been taken into custody by Virginia State Police with the assistance of the Stafford County Sheriff's Office.
