

All Children's programs are held
@facebook.com/tosakids unless otherwise noted. Whether the program is live or prerecorded you are sure to catch the program
by scrolling through the newsfeed.

PROGRAMS

Rhyme Time

Rhyme Time engages your child in early literacy development through interactive stories, song, fingerplays and movement. Rhyme Time is designed for children birth through 2 years and may be found live on www.facebook.com/tosakids.

Tuesday at 9:30, then stays posted

March 2, 16

April 6, 20

May 4, 18

Story Time

Story Time engages your child in early literacy development through interactive stories, song, fingerplays and movement. Story Time is designed for children ages 3 - 6 years and may be found live on www.facebook.com/tosakids.

Tuesday at 9:30, then stays posted.

March 9, 23

April 13, 27

May 11, 25

March Madness

Join the Team for March Madness! Your favorite books will vie for "Most Popular" among our patrons, throughout the month of March. Which ones will come out on top? Vote each week in this single elimination tournament at the library. Make the play to find a winner! Score!

Home School Book Club

Book Club meets once a month (virtually through Zoom) and is recommended for children ages 9-12. Discussion and crafts. Call 414-471-8484 to register, if new.

Mar 5—Shadow (by Michael Morpugo)

Apr 9—A Wolf Called Wander (by Rosanne Parry)

Apr 30—Front Desk (by Kelly Yang)

The Lego Challenge

Break out your own bricks to meet the Lego challenge! We'll be apart but working together through 5 minute builds, and your choice of activity: making a marble maze, zipline, tower, swimming pool, and more.

Tuesday, March 30
10:00-10:45 a.m. on Zoom

Contact Sue
smarshall@wauwatosalibrary.org
for the link for the program

April is National Poetry Month!

Put a poem in your pocket by stopping by the Children's Desk. You will see how powerful a poem can be. All ages.

April 1 to April 30
As supplies last.

More Programs on Back →

April is National Poetry Month!

Can you create a new idea from someone else's writing? Try your hand (and marker!) at Blackout Poetry!

Stop by the children's reference desk for your supplies and get ready to get creative!

This program is for patrons 4th grade and up.

Kits are available starting April 5th, while supplies last.

April is National Poetry Month!

Did you know poetry is all around you? It's true! Capture the poetry around you by trying Found Poetry.

Stop by the children's reference desk for your supplies and get ready to capture poetry!

This program is for patrons 4th grade and up.

Kits are available starting April 19th, while supplies last.

Social Justice Family
Story Time

Social Justice Family Story Time brings social justice issues to the level of children using picturebooks. For families of all ages.

This month's topic is homelessness.

Saturday, April 10th
10-10:30 a.m. on Zoom

Contact Maria
mschmitt@wauwatosalibrary.org to register for the program

Social Justice Book Club

Social Justice Book Club is for patrons 4th grade and up.

This month's topic is homelessness and our book is Crenshaw by Katherine Applegate.

Saturday, April 10th
11-11:30 a.m. on Zoom

Contact Maria
mschmitt@wauwatosalibrary.org to register for the program

May the 4th Be With You

Saturday, May 1

Visit the Children's Room on any time from 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m., for all ages. Prepare for Star Wars Reads Day by visiting the Children's Library for take-home crafts, stickers, book-marks, and other activities, as supplies last. See if you can answer Star Wars trivia and identify characters. No need to make a reservation.

Origami on the go

During the month of March, swing by the Children's Reference Desk to pick up an origami instruction sheet with origami paper to fold at home.

While supplies last.

Our Stance on Literacy

We are always reading and we are always learning. Literacy is social and requires practice. As literacy advocates, we support reading engagement all year long. We welcome your child's conversations regarding their reading.