TASTE OF ITALY WITH SORRENTO TOUR

10-DAY ITINERARY

Sun, September 6 DEPART THE UNITED STATES

Take an overnight flight across the Atlantic as you travel to start your vacation.

Mon, September 7 VENICE ARRIVAL

After landing at Venice Airport, complete customs and immigration formalities. Your CIE Tours Representative will welcome you to Italy and escort you and your luggage to the water taxi. Transfer to your hotel, check in and settle into your room. In the afternoon, meet your tour director before setting off on a guided walking tour of Venice to see some highlights of the city, known as the "Queen of the Adriatic". Head back to your hotel in time to join your fellow travelers for a welcome drink followed by dinner in the hotel restaurant.

DINNER & OVERNIGHT: SATURNIA & INTERNATIONAL HOTEL, VENICE

Tue, September 8 MURANO ISLAND

Today, embark on a leisurely cruise along the Giudecca Canal to visit the island of Murano, famous for the beautiful blown glass that its craftsmen have produced for centuries. Upon arrival, stop to visit a glass blowing factory to see a demonstration on traditional Venetian glass blowing led by a local artist. Head back to the mainland and embark on a guided walking tour to see more highlights of the iconic city. Along the way, visit Piazza San Marco, known for its world-famous marble square that is lined with galleries, luxury shops and charming cafés. Here, view the magnificent Basilica San Marco, the beautiful Campanile, sumptuous décor of the church and the Clock Tower, whose famous 'Moors' have been striking the hours for over 500 years. Then, continue on to view the Bridge of Sighs, which passes over the Rio di Palazzo and connects the old prisons to the interrogation rooms in the Doge's Palace. The name of the bridge comes from the suggestion that prisoners would sigh at their final view of beautiful Venice out the window before being taken down to their cells. After, embark on a leisurely gondola ride, which is a unique way to explore Venice. As your gondolier glides through the calm water, see the Baroque buildings and classic charm of this historical city. Return to your hotel and spend the balance of the day free for individual pursuits and dining.

OVERNIGHT: SATURNIA & INTERNATIONAL HOTEL, VENICE

Wed, September 9 VENICE TO FLORENCE

Leaving Venice, drive through Po Valley, one of the most densely populated and important industrial and agricultural areas in Europe. Po is the longest river in Italy and flows through the Po Valley region. Continue into the historic foodie city of Bologna and stop to enjoy some free time to grab an independent bite to eat and explore on your own. You might like to visit the beautiful Piazza Maggiore. No square in Italy is more animated and endlessly fascinating than this piazza. Continue your travel along the Apennine Mountains into Florence and embark on an orientation walking tour of the city, known for its artistic wealth and beauty. Transfer to your nearby hotel, check in and spend some time at leisure before joining your fellow travelers for dinner in the hotel restaurant.

DINNER & OVERNIGHT: HOTEL EXECUTIVE, FLORENCE

Thu, September 10 FLORENCE SIGHTSEEING

This morning, embark on a guided cultural walking tour of Florence, the "Cradle of the Italian Renaissance". Stop to visit the Accademia Museum, which was founded in 1784 and hosts a collection of sculptures, picture galleries and paintings. One of the most important works on display at the museum is David by Michelangelo completed around 1504. Then, head to the beautiful Piazza Del Duomo to see the Cathedral of Santa Maria Del Fiore, Giotto's Bell Tower and the Romanesque Baptistery of St. John with the exquisite bronze doors by Ghiberti. Next, visit the beautiful Piazza della Signoria, which is surrounded by several important buildings including Palazzo degli Uffizi, the oldest art museum in the world, and Palazzo Vecchio, the town hall of Florence. Continue to the Piazza di Santa Croce, one of the main squares in Florence, named after the stunning Basilica of Santa Croce, which overlooks the square. After, journey to a nearby restaurant to enjoy a classic Italian lunch with your group. Return to your hotel and spend the rest of the day free to sightsee, shop and dine on your own.

OVERNIGHT: HOTEL EXECUTIVE, FLORENCE

Fri, September 11 FLORENCE TO ROME

Departing Florence, travel into the scenic hill town of Orvieto and stop to enjoy a delightful tasting of its renowned local wine along with lunch. Continue your journey into Rome and set off to discover Imperial Rome by visiting the Colosseum, Rome's most recognized monument, where fit gladiators often fought in action packed shows and early Christians were sometimes martyred. The Colosseum had the ability to hold up to 50,000 spectators and is considered to be one of the great architectural achievements of Ancient Rome. After, visit The Circus Maximus, the first and largest ancient Roman stadium. Transfer to your hotel, check in and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. This evening, you might like to experience a taste of Rome by dining independently at a popular Roman restaurant, a great introduction to the exciting Roman Dolce Vita.

OVERNIGHT: HOTEL ROMANICO PALACE, ROME

Sat, September 12 VATICAN MUSEUM & SISTINE CHAPEL

After breakfast, tour the Vatican Museum and Sistine Chapel, where out of respect for its sacredness, the Vatican has requested silence during your visit. While here, you will see magnificent sculptures, Maps Gallery and the Hall of Tapestries. The tour ends in the Sistine Chapel, where you can view Michelangelo's Creation and the famous Last Judgment. Next, visit the massive St. Peter's Basilica, which is the largest church in Christendom and can hold up to 60,000 people. Tradition maintains that Saint Peter's tomb is below the altar. Return to your hotel and enjoy some free time before meeting your fellow travelers for a traditional Italian dinner at a nearby restaurant.

Sun, September 13 POMPEII EXCAVATIONS

Leaving Rome, travel into Pompeii to see the excavation site destroyed, buried under ashes and forever preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D. Excavation may have begun in 1748, but work is still being done today. See many frescos that still seem fresh, and the restored mosaic floors which are spectacular. After, head to a local restaurant to enjoy an authentic Italian lunch with your group before continuing your journey into Sorrento, where Limoncello liqueur was invented. Upon arrival, check into your hotel, settle into your room and spend the balance of the day at leisure. In the evening, you might like to sample the fine local cuisine by dining at a nearby venue.

OVERNIGHT: CENTRAL HOTEL, SORRENTO

Mon, September 14 ISLE OF CAPRI

Today, take a ferry across the Bay of Naples to the charming Island of Capri. Upon arrival, set off on a guided tour to take in some of the breath-taking sights of the picturesque island. After, enjoy free time to explore around the beautiful island on your own. You may like to take a chair-lift to capture the wonder and views of the colorful waters from Anacapri or explore the Roman ruins. You may also like to take a leisurely stroll along the winding lanes, visit a day spa or just enjoy some gelato. Later, head back to your hotel in Sorrento, where the rest of the day is at leisure for individual sightseeing, shopping, dining and more.

OVERNIGHT: CENTRAL HOTEL, SORRENTO

Tue, September 15 AMALFI COAST

This morning, set off on a half day panoramic tour to admire the delightfully charming Amalfi Coast. The Amalfi Coast is a scenic stretch of southern coastline, which extends from Positano to Vietri sul Mare. There will be plenty of stops at strategic locations to take photos of the picturesque towns, rugged terrain and natural beauty of the Amalfi Coast. Along the way, journey into the cliff-hugging village of Positano, where each house seems to be stacked upon the next. This splendid ensemble of colourful houses clinging to the mountainside is one of Italy's classic sights. Then, head into the town of Amalfi, one of the most famous Maritime capitals of Italy. Upon arrival, stop to view the Duomo di Amalfi, a medieval church dedicated to the Apostle Saint Andrew, whose relics are housed here. Admire the beautiful mosaic tiles that cover the splendid Bell Tower, which was completed in 1276. Enjoy some free time to explore around the town on your own and grab an independent bite to eat for lunch before returning to your hotel in Sorrento. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a wonderful farewell dinner at a nearby restaurant.

OVERNIGHT: CENTRAL HOTEL, SORRENTO

Wed, September 16 RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES

All too soon, your vacation has come to its final day. Transfer to Naples Airport in good time to check in for your flight. You may do some last minute shopping at the duty free stores before boarding your aircraft and flying back to the United States.
