

Celebrate Deaf Awareness Month with two events hosted by Iowa School for the Deaf Outreach and the Iowa Department of Education

WEDNESDAY

Especially for high school students who are deaf or hard of hearing

SEPT. 22
1-2 p.m.

No need to register.
Click here for Zoom link

How Did a Deaf Guy Get Elected?

The Gary Malkowski Story

In this live, one-hour interactive Zoom, former Deaf Canadian politician Gary Malkowski describes his rise to political success, sharing inspirational messages and advice. Teens in the Zoom will relate to his frustrations, victories, and learn how perseverance resulted in a prestigious position with the Ontario Provincial Parliament.

Malkowski

Medugno

MONDAY

For parents, families and the community

SEPT. 27
6.30 p.m.

No need to register.
Click here for Zoom link

How Did a Deaf Politician Get a Book Written

About Him? In this Zoom, Deaf Politician Gary Malkowski's story continues, this time joined by his biographer, Richard Medugno. Richard raised a deaf daughter who is now an ASL teacher at Iowa School for the Deaf. Richard is the author of Deaf Politician and Deaf Daughter/Hearing Father. Gary and Richard will share views on raising children who are deaf or hard of hearing, the importance of language access and more during this presentation/Q&A event.

Free event!

ASL and voice interpretation provided.

Click here for more information about Gary and Richard, including Richard's books.

Contact
chiser@iowaschoolforthe deaf.org with questions.

Iowa School
for the Deaf

