

Introducing the Child Care Provider Support Podcast

In our Child Care Provider Support podcast series, the Couch Coaching Quintet looks under the hood of early learning to diagnose what's going on. We're thoughtful, opinionated, and irreverent (not always in that order). Each month, we take on a Big Topic and some small stuff, too. Your questions and suggestions help fuel our series. We hope you have as much fun eavesdropping on us as we have making these podcasts for you! Access podcasts here.

Summaries available in Somali and Spanish

Episode 2: What 21st Century Kids Should Be Learning

April 2021 Podcast Topic:

The Couch Coaching Quintet discuss what 21st century kids should be learning. Flying cars, TV trays and sparkle crayons all rate mentions as we dissect what “Kindergarten Readiness” should mean.

Coming in May 2021:

Race! Starting with Dr. Seuss, the Couch Coaching Quintet explores what has changed, what hasn't, and what needs to change in how our field deals with race.

For questions or more information, please email ccpodcast@childcare.org

Presented by Child Care Resources and the Couch Coaching Team

