Avoiding Common PMR and AUP Findings

Chatham

PMR and AUP reviews can identify compliance issues that create operational, financial, and administrative challenges for housing authorities. This session will highlight the most common findings identified during reviews and provide practical strategies to help agencies strengthen compliance and reduce risk. Participants will learn best practices for documentation, internal controls, procurement, occupancy, financial reporting, and policy implementation, along with proactive steps to prepare for successful reviews. Ideal for executive directors, finance staff, and housing authority administrators, this session will offer real-world guidance to help agencies avoid repeat findings and improve overall operational performance.

Moderator: William Schrade, Executive Director, Adams H.A.

Presenter: Fatima Razzaq, Assistant Undersecretary of Public Housing and Rental Assistance, EOHLC
