

LEWIS & ELLIS

Actuaries and Consultants

Dave Dillon will present at three sessions of the Society of Actuaries annual meeting in Nashville:

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15

Moderator - Commissioners' Roundtable

Insurance commissioners will discuss a variety of current topics, including health care reform, risks in the major medical markets, voluntary products and more. At the conclusion of this session, attendees will be able to identify issues that are on the mind of the regulatory agencies and the different approaches used across the country.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16

Moderator - Health Section Hot Breakfast

Start the day off right with a warm breakfast, perspectives from health care industry leaders and an update on Health Section activities. The breakfast is open to all meeting attendees free of charge. If you plan to attend, you must register in advance.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

Presenter - Actuarial Professionalism: Judge & Jury

Court is in session and you are the jury! Follow along as challenging aspects of actuarial professionalism are explored in a court-like setting. Deliberate based on what you already know from your own experience as well as based on what you learn in this session, and then deliver your verdict accordingly. Who says learning about actuarial professionalism can't also be fun? At the conclusion of this session, attendees will be able to:

- Apply actuarial professionalism concepts;
- Identify key ASOPs;
- Explain significant aspects of the U.S. Qualification Standards.
