

The Episcopal Diocese of Nebraska

2024 EfM EVENT

LIVING IN A WORLD BEYOND A BINARY GOD Stories & Challenges of our Trans Neighbors

The 2024 EfM event will include two presentations: “Gender 101: Language and Tools for Supporting the Transgender Community” and “Trans-Affirming and Gender Expansive Theology.” The event will also include breakout sessions, time to listen to personal stories, and time for questions. Register here.

All are welcome!

EfM Graduates, Mentors, Students, LGBTQ+ community members, and interested individuals.

FEBRUARY 10, 2024

9:30 AM – 12 PM CST

Online Via Zoom

Click here to Register

SUGGESTED DONATION

$25 to The Benedictine Way

If you have questions about this event or EfM, contact Sandra Squires (she/her), DioNEb EfM Coordinator, at sandra.k.squires76@gmail.com.

The Rev. Toni Anderson (she/her) is an Episcopal Priest serving as Rector of Church of the Resurrection in Omaha, Nebraska since 2019. She came out as transgender in October of 2023, and is striving to be an effective advocate for LGBTQ+ rights. She is working to build bridges between people of faith and the queer community.

Cameron Koenig-Barker (he/they) is a queer transman and licensed independent mental health practitioner. He is currently a therapist at Child Saving Institute and is passionate about working with LGBTQ+ youth.

Heidi Sell (she/her) is a writer, teacher, photographer and mother of a trans man.