

Noe Andre

Noe is a bible teacher in our public high school teaching program. As an energetic young man, the high school students relate easily to him and intently listen as he teaches and shares God's truths from his heart. Noe is an accomplished musician, playing the saxophone, and leading the choir at his church. He joyfully shares his gifts of teaching and music with the youth, as part of our CIDM team.

Noe has been a faithful servant as a staff teammate with CIDM for 6 years. He goes out of his way to create relationships with his students, pointing them to Christ. He's a shining example of what a man of God looks like in Haiti.

Noe is married to an amazing woman and they are enjoying their newly born son this year.
