

RVAR: A Decade or Two Ago

Look back a decade or two ago at what was happening in the Association and area real estate market.

- Henry Scholz served as RVAR's 2000 President.
- Dennis Cronk served as NAR's 2000 President.
- In the fall of 2000, Doug Sawyer was installed as VAR's President – which meant that for a few months, an RVAR member served as President at all three levels of the REALTOR® organization.
- RVAR had 913 members in January, 2000.
- Homes sold through the MLS in 2000 totaled 4,195 with an average price of $138,250.
- RVAR selected a new MLS vendor in 2000, VISTAInfo.com, which was an Internet-based system – considered cutting edge at the time.
- Scott Vaughan was named 2000 Affiliate of the Year.
- Doug Sawyer was named 2000 REALTOR® of the Year.
- Richard Limroth served as RVAR's 2010 President.
- RVAR had 1,372 members in January, 2010.
- RVAR changed online forms vendors late in the year from Instanet to zipForms.
- Homes sold through the MLS in 2010 totaled 3,269 with an average price of $195,310.
- Gail Perry was named 2010 Affiliate of the Year.
- Tim Toohig was named 2010 REALTOR® of the Year.