Bowdoin Years:

What was your favorite place on and off campus? The giant steps.

Who was your favorite professor? Chris Potholm

Did you study abroad? How were you influenced? Sydney Australia - I didn't want to come home.

If you played sports, with which teams? Field Hockey, I lasted 3 days. Cross country skiing team, freshman year. Laura and I were more mascots than serious competitors, but I loved it!

What extracurricular groups did you join? Not enough of them...Beta.

What was your college nickname? Do people still call you that? Lex. Only people who have known me for a very long time.

Memories:

What are your favorite memories of Bowdoin? Swing dancing dinner parties with Laura, Greg, and Matt sophomore year. Going to the giant steps in the middle of the night. Going to LL Bean in the middle of the night. Balanced meals.

What was your favorite tradition? The polar bear club.

Where would you have been on a Saturday night at Bowdoin? Freshman year, I would have been at the pub in Baxter's basement. Senior year, I would have been at Players.

What songs most remind you of Bowdoin? Steph Rogers' dance mix tape.

Who was your Screw Your Roommate Date? Soames Floweree

Life Since 1994:

What would surprise 22 year old you most about your life now? That I voluntarily get on stage.

What do you think your classmates would be most surprised to learn about you now? That I perform standup comedy.

What would you like to share about the people in your life? How would you describe them? I'm not married and I don't have any kids, but I have a family by choice, whom I love, spread all over the world.

What have you been doing since Bowdoin? Producing events and talking into microphones.

What do you do for fun? Ski

Bowdoin Admissions asks: What have you done to further the common good? How would you answer that if you were applying today? I've helped raise hundreds of millions of dollars for charity.

Do you think you would be accepted today? Not a chance. :-)

Closing Thoughts:

What Bowdoin friends are you still connected to? Laura and Dan Fowler. I saw PJ Johnson a few years ago when I was in San Francisco touring with a show. Lots of people on Facebook.

What did you have at Bowdoin that you wish you had now? A name that wasn't spoken as a command in houses all over America.

What do you have now that you wish you'd had at Bowdoin? Confidence.

What would you change about your Bowdoin experience? I'd join the radio station.

What courses do you wish you had taken at Bowdoin? Anthropology, Religion, Economics

What did your Bowdoin experience give you that inspires you still? A best friend.
