

2022 Fair Housing Month Event

Fair Housing: A Call to Action

Tuesday, April 26th, 2022

9 a.m. - 12:30pm

In person at Venue 918 at GTAR or Virtual via Zoom

HUD Regional Director of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity

Christina Lewis, HUD Region VI Regional Director of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity will open the seminar with this year's theme for Fair Housing month.

Appraisal Processes in Oklahoma

City of Tulsa District 1 City Counselor, Vanessa Hall-Harper will present on appraisal processes in Oklahoma, and if OK has an unfair appraisal system.

Fair Housing Compliance in Advertising, Steering and Fair Housing Discrimination

Legal Aid Services of Oklahoma, Inc. and the GTAR Equal Opportunity committee Chairperson will lead a discussion focused on fair housing. Topics will cover frequently asked questions regarding fair housing law, advertising, showing homes and screening applicants legally, steering and discrimination. Also, what do people do if they feel like they have been discriminated against while trying to buy or rent a home?

This event is FREE and open to the public.

2 ways to participate:

- 1) In person at Venue 918 at GTAR- 11505 E 43rd St, Tulsa
- 2) Via Zoom, after registration a link will be emailed to you

Registration is required for both in person and virtual participants

—To register, click the link below or the QR code:

Click Here to Register via Google doc

Questions? email kwise@tulsa-health.org for assistance

OREC Approved: 3 hours required FHR CE

