

3M Stand-Down Webinar Series

Join the 3M Safety Team for a series of online learning opportunities! Space is limited - register early using QR codes

Monday May 5, 2025

Welding Hazards – What are they and how to be better protected– 45 mins @ 10 AM CST

This session will focus will be on respiratory, radiation, and flying particles associated with welding. Also, will identify sources and controls of hazards.

Tuesday May 6, 2025

ABCs of Fall Protection – 1 hr @ 10 AM CST

This session will focus on the importance of fall protection, learning about the hierarchy of controls, and essential components of a fall arrest system.

Wednesday May 7, 2025

Hot Topics in Fall Protection:

ANSI .14 Standard Update and Dropped Objects – 1 hr @ 10 AM CST

This session will cover ANSI’s recent SRL standard update, which went into effect August of 2023, as well as methods which can be used in a dropped object prevention plan.

Thursday May 8, 2025

Hearing Conservation in Construction – 1 hr @ 10:30 AM CST

Occupational noise induced hearing loss (NIHL) is prevalent in Construction. Hear best practices in Hearing Conservation Programs such as training, fit testing, and advanced technologies which may help when job tasks may require a greater ability to hear surrounding sounds and communicate with others.

Friday May 9, 2025

Science of Fit – 1 hr @ 10AM CST

The Construction PPE standard was revised to specifically require that PPE fit properly. Hear the latest updates in rulemaking, strategies for considering employee PPE fit, and methods to assess fit for hearing protection, eye protection, respiratory protection and fall harnesses.

	Welding Hazards	ABCs of Fall Protection	Hot Topics in Fall Protection	Hearing Conservation in Construction	Science of Fit
Webinar Series Schedule	Monday May 5 10 AM CST	Tuesday May 6 10 AM CST	Wednesday May 7 10 AM CST	Thursday May 8 10:30 AM CST	Friday May 9 10 AM CST
Registration QR Codes					