Hello, Pacific Symphony Volunteers!

I hope that many of you were able to participate with us this week for the Spirit of Volunteerism Virtual Celebration where Pacific Symphony honored Dr. Jo Ellen Chatham for her valuable investment of time resources and leadership as a Pacific Symphony Board member and friend to the symphony. It was a great occasion and memorable for many reasons! Three of which are; 1.) It was spectacular to be able to cheer on our very own volunteer who has contributed so much, 2.) How impressive was it to see the variety of organizations honoring their volunteers and the wonderful work being done throughout our county? and 3.) Having a virtual appreciation event actually worked which gives us all new ideas about how we can best communicate with one another, in the best and worst of times!

The music and activity we have planned for you today go hand-in-hand! Please enjoy the music of Pink Martini here while coloring one of the attached Pacific Symphony Coloring Pages. Pink Martini is a musical group that was formed in 1994 in Portland, Oregon. Members of the band call it a little orchestra that crosses the genres of classical music, classic pop, Latin music, and jazz.

We have provided 3 pages for you to choose from, so if you enjoy coloring the first one, please stay at it and color another page while listening to Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini here. Russian composer and pianist, Sergei Rachmaninoff wrote this piece for solo piano and symphony orchestra while vacationing at his summer home in Switzerland.

Of course, please also enjoy our own musicians playing Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 from their homes here!

Lastly, to help keep our Pacific Symphony staff morale high, we would love to recruit your warm and loving energy to create something like the picture below! We are inviting you to join us next Tuesday morning, May 5th at 11:30am on a Zoom call to learn all the details for this project. If you haven't yet been on a Zoom call, it's easy and fun! In the meantime, feel free to gather any colored paper, markers, or other art supplies so you are prepared when we give you your "assignment"!
