Hello, Pacific Symphony Volunteers!

In honor of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and the stellar composition we would have heard had we been in the Renee and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall this weekend, enjoy his Piano Concerto No. 20 in D minor here.

Composed in 1785, Mozart first performed this concerto at the Mehlgrube Casino in Vienna on February 11th, 1785 with himself as the soloist! What a joy it would have been to hear his performance! The recording you are listening to is performed by Mitsuko Uchida. She has earned the title of one of the greatest classical pianists of the 20th Century and has made many recordings of Mozart's piano works. Once you hear this piece, you will understand why she is so highly revered!

Today, we continue our Volunteer Challenge in support of our Pacific Symphony staff team! All of our staff have now been working from home for the past 48 days and they would LOVE to hear from you. Just follow the directions on the attached PDF, Pacific Symphony Volunteer Activity Supporting Staff, and return your photo (of yourself holding your sign) to volunteerservices@pacificsymphony.org by TOMORROW, Friday, May 8th! We will put the photos together in an attractive display and send the finished product to our staff as soon as possible. It will make them so happy to see your smiling faces!!

Have a wonderful day and weekend!

Please stay well. Stay safe. Know that we miss you.

Warmest regards,

Abby
