Hello, Pacific Symphony Volunteers!

If you haven't yet stepped outside today, please do so! The weather was glorious! Blue sky, fluffy clouds, and a perfect temperature.

Blue skies always lift our spirits and that's what we hope our message will do today, as well.

First, we have some lovely pieces performed by Pacific Symphony musicians, straight from their living rooms! Along with the musical selections, there are some fun personal interviews of orchestra members. Enjoy these, but take note of what you see and hear, because we have Musical Bingo (see attached) for you to keep track!

Secondly, we are inviting you to join us next Tuesday morning, March 31st, at 10:30am on a Zoom call. If you haven't yet been on a Zoom call, it's easy and fun! At that time, we will share details about a project we want your help with – creating notes of encouragement for our Pacific Symphony musicians! Be sure to join us on Tuesday to see how you can uplift our fabulous musicians until they are back in the concert hall.

Finally, we want you to release your inner musician today by giving you the opportunity to compose your own musical piece. Don't worry, it is short and sweet! Follow the directions here to create something special and unique.

1. Here, we have created some music from text: <http://typatone.com/m/dGd1JXiyUV> -- feel free to make your own here! <https://typatone.com/>
2. <https://kickthejetengine.com/langorhythm/> This also designs music based on text where you will be able to download your own music file.

Make sure to save and send us your completed Bingo and musical compositions. For the volunteers who compete all the games/puzzles/crosswords that we send while we are away from the office, we will have a special surprise. So, keep watching for our twice weekly emails, show us your competed work and we will keep you on the list for your reward! If you missed our last email, a crossword, please let us know!

Stay well. Stay safe. Know that we miss you.

Warm regards,

Abby
