An Order for Celebrating the Holy Eucharist from A New Zealand Prayer Book

St. John's Episcopal Church, Beverly Farms, MA

Welcome to St. John's! If you are visiting with us this morning, we are especially delighted that you have joined us. Please visit www.sjcb.org for information about this vibrant community of faith. If you'd like to receive our weekly email newsletter, please let us know how we can keep in touch!

Worship during Covid: For the month of February, we will be worshipping Sundays at 9:00 a.m. You can join us online on the St. John's Facebook page, in our parking lot by tuning your radio to 103.1 fm or 'in person' in the church. Current indoor worship guidelines include maintaining social distancing and wearing masks or face coverings. Other instructions will be provided during the Welcome or following the Peace. However you worship with us, we are glad to have you as part of our community.

Restrooms: Small restrooms are located just outside the sanctuary by exiting the door to the right of the altar. Larger, handicapped-accessible restrooms can be found by exiting the same door and walking to the end of the hallway. So that we can ensure social distance during Covid, these are available for one person at a time.

Welcome

Opening Acclamation

Officiant      This is the day which the Lord has made.
People        Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

The Collect of the Day

People        The Lord be with you.
                    And also with you.
                    Let us pray.

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Psalm Psalm 1

- 1 Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
                    nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
- 2 Their delight is in the law of the LORD, *
                    and they meditate on his law day and night.
- 3 They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
                    everything they do shall prosper.
- 4 It is not so with the wicked; *
                    they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, * nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
- 6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, *
                    but the way of the wicked is doomed.

1 O for a thou - sand tongues to sing my dear Re - deem - er's praise,
 2 My gra - cious Mas - ter and my God, as - sist me to pro - claim
 3 Je - sus! the Name that charms our fears and bids our sor - rows cease;

The Gospel Luke 6:17-26

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ...

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus came down with the twelve apostles and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon. They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

"Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

"Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets."

"But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

"Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

"Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

"Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

All stand, as able.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became fully human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, and has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People                    And also with you.

The Offertory

The Offertory Anthem    The Tree of Life My Soul Hath Seen

Pinkham

*The tree of life my soul hath seen, laden with fruit and always green:
The trees of nature fruitless be, compared with Christ the apple tree.*

*His beauty doth all things excel: By faith I know but ne'er can tell
The glory which I now can see in Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

*For happiness I long have sought, And pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all: but now I see 'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.*

*I'm weary with my former toil, Here will I sit and rest awhile:
Under the shadow I will be Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

*This fruit doth make my soul to thrive, It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be With Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

-      Anonymous, from a collection of Joshua Smith, New Hampshire, 1784

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord is here.
God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to offer thanks and praise.

A New Zealand Prayer Book
Celebrating the Grace of God

Above all we give you thanks and praise for your grace in sending Jesus Christ, not for any merit of our own but when we had turned away from you. In him we see you, the eternal God, revealing your glory in our flesh, for he is the light of the nations who illuminates our darkness. Therefore with people of every nation, tribe and language, with the whole Church on earth and in heaven, joyfully we give you thanks and say:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

All glory and honour to you, God of grace, for you gave your only Son Jesus Christ once for all on the cross to be the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

The night before he died, he took bread, and when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup, and when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins; do this as often as you drink it, to remember me.

Therefore heavenly Father, in this sacrament of the suffering and death of your Son, we now celebrate the wonder of your grace and proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come in glory.

Redeemer God, rich in mercy, infinite in goodness, we were far off until you brought us near and our hands are empty until you fill them. As we eat this bread and drink this wine, through the power of your Holy Spirit feed us with your heavenly food, renew us in your service, unite us in Christ, and bring us to your everlasting kingdom. O the depths and riches of your wisdom, O God; how unsearchable are your judgments and untraceable your ways.

From you, and through you, and for you are all things. To you be the glory for ever. Amen.

As Christ teaches us we pray

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

The priest breaks the bread. Silence may be kept.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

The Invitation

The priest invites the people saying

Draw near and receive the body and blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ in remembrance that he died for us. Let us feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

A Prayer of Spiritual Communion

St. Alphonsus de Liguouri, 1696-1787

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Therefore, everliving God, keep us steadfast in your holy fellowship. And now we offer ourselves, all that we have and are, to serve you faithfully in the world, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Former Music Director Jeremy Bruns and current Music Director Frances Conover Fitch will collaborate on an varied and lively program of music for organ, harpsichord, and piano. Francie and Jeremy will be playing some duets. Among the featured composers will be César Franck, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, and Elisabeth-Claude Jacquet de la Guerre, the child prodigy harpsichordist who lived at the court of Louis IV.

Isabel's Office Hours

Isabel will be at St. John's in the office on Tuesdays from 10am-3pm, Fridays from 10am-12pm and by appointment.
