Video Overview and Objectives (Part 2):

This video series is comprised of 15-20 minute professionally developed training modules that each present one topic related to EMS and specific to the state of Florida. Modules were created by experts in the field of emergency medicine and/or EMS who are most involved in evidence-based research. The series will review best practices, tips & tricks, and evidence-based practice.

2.1: CPR Vs Determination of Death

There are things we deal with in EMS that can be on the tougher side of medicine. This byte is a brief overview on what meets nationally recognized criteria for withholding resuscitation, what is a DNR in Florida, and why we need the POLST.

Learning Objectives

- Criteria for Withholding Resuscitation
- DNR in Florida
- Why we need a POLST

2.2: Treating and Transporting Our Own

This byte is a review of the pitfalls of caring for medical professionals and VIPs, and strategies to ensure care is delivered fairly.

Learning Objectives

- Identify strategies to remain fair and objective when caring for a colleague

2.3: Termination of Resuscitation

A brief overview of the termination of resuscitation (TOR) rules and pearls.

Learning Objectives

- Identify the TOR criteria
- Describe the evidence for TOR rules

2.4: Emotional and Mental Health Related Trauma

In this byte, we will talk about emotional and mental health related trauma.

Learning Objectives

- Recognize trauma related to mental health and emotions
- Describe warning signs and tips on how to cope or help others
