

Christian Educator

Pebble Hill Church is seeking a Christian educator to provide energetic leadership for the children's programs. This position will foster positive relationships with children and their families in helping them develop their faith and further their involvement in the life of Pebble Hill Church. The educator will work together with church staff and volunteers in reaching out to families in the community. This position will be a virtual one until further notice.

Qualifications:

- Strong personal faith, biblical knowledge, and passion for working with children.
- Bachelor's degree, preferably in education.
- Technological experience and ability.
- Strong leadership and interpersonal skills.

Essential Functions:

- Develop and lead virtual programming for children, and their families as part of Sunday worship and education.
- Create two virtual "time with children" messages each month.
- Provide monthly activity packets for children until a "normal" church schedule resumes.
- Attend Sunday services in person once the church has reopened.
- Possess the ability to recruit, inspire and cooperate with and to learn from volunteers, in order to make projects successful.
- Communicate effectively with families and with the wider congregation to support a strong future for the children at Pebble Hill.

Other Competencies:

- Possesses excellent communication skills (written, oral, social media, etc.).
- Works well independently and on a team.
- Possesses a positive personal outlook with consistent enthusiasm.
- Organized/able to plan and bring together elements needed to execute ideas.

Position Details: Approximately five hours per week with increased hours for special projects/events. Salary is $20/hour. This is a contract position. The educator reports directly to the church pastor. Responsibilities may be carried out either in the church building or at home at this time. This position could be expanded in the future to include in-person, Sunday-morning responsibilities.
