WELCOME BACK COMMUNITY FORUM

PHOTO GALLERY

150 residents packed the Mandel Recreation Center on November 6, 2025 where Town Council President Bobbie Lindsay and a panel of senior town leaders engaged with residents on issues that impact the quality of life in Palm Beach. Michael Pucillo, Civic Association Chairman and a former member and President of the Town Council, moderated the 90-minute program. Topics included traffic and parking mitigation, undergrounding, the town's new budget, how the town is addressing derelict vessels and illegal moorings in town waters, and the town's zoning code reform.

DIRECTORS' LUNCHEON & RECEPTION

Exciting news announced at the November 19, 2025 Directors' Luncheon & Reception. PBCA Chairman Emeritus Bob Wright and wife Susan, Co-Chair of the Communications Committee & Director since 2020, have donated $1 million to the Palm Beach Civic Association to launch a new segment on its award-winning Palm Beach TV.

The Wright News: Follow the Story tracks news as it continues to unfold. Also announced, Judy Goodman—Chair of the Health Care Committee and a member of the Executive Committee—will sponsor PBTB's Health Education Series for the next five years. The series features interviews with physicians and health care experts on topics impacting health and well-being. The Directors' Luncheon & Reception was sponsored by Glazer Hall, the new performing arts center opening in late January at the Royal Poinciana Playhouse. Glazer Hall was co-founded and is co-chaired by Avie Glazer and Jill Glazer, a Civic Association director since 2023.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY RECEPTION

Holiday cheer was in full swing as directors and members came together on December 10 to celebrate the Civic Association's annual holiday party. Sponsored by the Frisbie Group, the festive evening featured live music, hors d'oeuvres, drinks, and great company. The reception has become a cherished tradition—an opportunity for members to pause amid the busy season and enjoy the spirit of the holidays together.
