Clean Energy in DuPage: Bartlett, Bloomingdale and Roselle

Learn more about the clean energy options available in DuPage County and elsewhere

March 6, 2019—ROSELLE, Illinois—The League of Women Voters Roselle/Bloomingdale will present a Clean Energy Forum titled, Clean Energy in DuPage: Bartlett, Bloomingdale and Roselle on Monday April 8th from 7:00-8:45 pm at the Bloomingdale Public Library located at 101 Fairfield Way in Bloomingdale.

This Forum will raise awareness of clean energy options for our communities and answer questions on how to implement them in our homes, businesses and institutions. It will include presentations on the Illinois Approach to Solar Energy, by Jeff Gahr, Illinois Solar Energy Ambassador, followed by a panel discussion on clean energy, solar options and an update on State/Federal legislation featuring: Edith Makra, Regional Clean Energy Programs; Jeff O'Connell, Lake Park High School; and Deni Mathews, Bartlett SolSmart Experience. The event will be moderated by John Perrecone, former Environmental Protection Specialist at U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Join us as we learn more about the clean energy options available in DuPage County and elsewhere. Get real examples of what is currently happening locally and in the Chicago region. Hear the latest information on state and federal legislation for clean energy and incentives. Learn how residents, governments and others can advocate for and implement clean energy options.

This League community event is free and open to the public. For more information about the League's events and monthly meetings, please contact Diana Hoke at (630) 283-2894.
