

CHRIST
THE KING

CHRIST THE KING fosters a transformative parish culture that INSPIRES AND CHALLENGES Catholics of all ages to lead a life of prayer, service, and stewardship in imitation of Christ. In so doing, this faith-filled parish family aims to become an example of how a 21st Century Christian community can inspire others to follow Jesus.

2020-2021 RELIGIOUS FORMATION CLASSES

Registrations for classes for the coming year have been delayed until the fall.

First Communion and Confirmations will be scheduled for next Spring. Watch the Bulletin for information, updates and schedules.

Books, Books, Books:

Virtual learning is over and most of us are entering into Summer schedules. Who can believe that our Religious Formation classes ended abruptly in early March? Most, if not all families, still have their child(ren)'s Sunday school books. These books are almost $20.00 each. If your book is in bad shape or lost – consider writing a check to cover the expense of replacing it. The Book Return Box is located on steps leading into the parish hall by the garage.

When doing your "post school" cleaning, please check your cars, your mudrooms and shelves for books. We would love to have them all back.

You can also return them to the Parish office from 9 a.m.—1 p.m. Monday through Thursday, or when you come to mass on the weekends.

MOTHER OF HOPE DAY CAMP

REFLECTION

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" What do you understand these words to mean? Many see these words as an indication of what may come in eternal life. In actuality, they have more to do with our lives here and now. We are called to die to ourselves and offer our lives as gifts given generously to others. It is not about us. We are asked to serve God and not continue in our service of sin. Life is about learning to do what we really do not want to do because it brings us deeper into the mystery of God, ourselves, and others. Learning how to accept and live with the "small deaths" and sacrifices we encounter teaches us how to live with and approach our final death. We can do so with a heart that has been touched by and is open to mercy or one that is self-focused and closed.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's gospel reading the Twelve hear Jesus speak these words: "whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." This is the first time Matthew mentions the word "cross" in his gospel, and it is not in direct reference to Jesus' crucifixion but as a prerequisite to following him. Good stewards recognize that the call to discipleship requires them to "take up the cross" and align their goals in life and their fate with that of Jesus, that is, with suffering, opposition, resistance and even death. Reflect this week on the crosses you need to take up daily in order to comprehend the way of Jesus Christ.

STEPHEN MINISTRY MESSAGE

"I know that grief, like regret, settles into our DNA and remains forever a part of us." (The Nightengale) These sister emotions can be so difficult to deal with by yourself. Nothing can change them, but talking about them with someone who will listen to you and not be judging you can be so healing. No, nothing will take away the pain, but it can be put into perspective. A Stephen Minister can help. Call Carol Hartley at 783-4036 (e-mail: CTK-StephenMinistry@verizon.net), Larry Bartley at 965-7276 (e-mail: LJBJR2cox.net) or call the office at 783-7459 for more information.

PEACE & JUSTICE NEWS

The Peace & Justice Committee urges parishioners to write to their legislators about the recent use of tear gas by the RI State Police to disperse a crowd in downtown Providence. Tear gas is banned in international warfare, yet allowed in RI. Teargas can be lethal and is indiscriminate. As citizens, we urge a change in RI regulations. To find contact information about your legislators, go to rilin.state.ri.us, "Find Your Legislator."

Quotes of the Week

“The global Church and the American Church must take a stand with the poor and the downtrodden marginalized blacks in America and many other Western societies, as well as in Latin America and on the African continent. The Church must be on the side of this movement of the Spirit in present history by being on the side of truth, justice, healing and restoration of those whose ancestry has been one long history of blood, death, destruction and tears...”

The question is: Is the Catholic Church prepared to lead humanity in reimagining a better world for blacks, and all peoples, in our longing for a new heaven and a new earth?”

“Racism, the Church and the suffering of people of African descent.” La Croix International. June 18, 2020.

“We can't ignore the image conjured by the word ‘plantations.’ We can't ignore how painful that is for black Rhode Islanders to see that and have to see that as part of their state’s name. It's demoralizing. It's a slap in the face. It's painful. It's a painful thing. So, yes, we have to acknowledge our history, it's true. But we can acknowledge our history without elevating a phrase that's so deeply associated with the ugliest time in our state and in our country's history.”

Gov. Gina Raimondo, calling for the words “and Providence Plantations” to be dropped from the name of our state. WPRI. June 22, 2020.

“Pope Francis praised the ‘heroic service’ of health care workers during the coronavirus pandemic, but also took a dig at some conservative priests who defied safety measures — calling their complaints over church closures ‘adolescent.’ The pope made his comments June 20 at the Vatican while thanking doctors and nurses from the northern Italian region of Lombardy, which was the hardest-hit region in the one-time European epicenter of the pandemic... Francis criticized the complaints of some priests who spoke out against lockdown measures, calling it ‘adolescent resistance.’”

“Pope Francis compares priests who defied pandemic safety measures to ‘adolescents.’” Fox6Now.com. June 23, 2020.

“The Diocese of Syracuse has filed for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, citing the financial implications of more than 100 lawsuits alleging past child sexual abuse as well as the economic impact of the coronavirus pandemic.”

“The Catholic Diocese of Saginaw announced after much deliberation between local faith and school leaders, the Blessed Sacrament School [in Midland, Michigan] will be closing on July 1. Several factors went into the decision, including a projected decline in enrollment, the sustainability of the school, and the impact of COVID-19 on the parish resources.”

“Midland’s Blessed Sacrament Parish School closing on July 1.” WNEM (Saginaw). June 18, 2020.

“Due to the financial impact on parishes and schools within the Diocese of Rockville Centre created by the COVID-19 pandemic, three elementary schools have announced they will close at the end of this school year and not reopen for the Fall 2020 academic year: Holy Family School, Commack; Our Lady of Wisdom Regional School, Port Jefferson and Saint Peter of Alcantara Elementary School, Port Washington.”

“Diocese of Rockville Centre announces three school closures.” drvcschools.com. June 19, 2020.

“Officials at the National Catholic Educational Association and the Secretariat of Catholic Education at the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops project that 100 to 150 schools won’t reopen this fall.”

“Catholic educators work to ease blow of pandemic-induced school closings.” Cruix. June 17, 2020.

“Religious freedom is under stress throughout the world. Even in our Western liberal democracies, discrimination against religion in general, and Catholic Christianity in particular, is growing — albeit in perhaps more sophisticated and less violent ways. Political analysts and human rights advocates do include religion on their agenda. But most emphasize ‘tolerance’ as if religion were only a source of conflict. Or, they speak about religion in terms of ‘individual choices,’ as if religion were merely the concern of an individual’s conviction and were devoid of any social consequences. Yet, just as freedom of speech depends not only on one’s right to say what’s on one’s mind but also on the existence of institutions like newspapers, universities, libraries, political parties and other associations that make up what we call ‘civil society,’ so too freedom of religion ‘for the good of all’ must also encompass protecting those institutions that nourish the individual’s free exercise of religion.

The right to religious freedom has its foundation in the very dignity of the human person. Religious freedom is the human right that guarantees all other rights — peace and creative living together will only be possible if freedom of religion is fully respected.”

Archbishop Thomas G. Wenski of Miami, the acting chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Committee for Religious Liberty. June 22, 2020.
