

CHRIST

Quotes of the Week

“Jesus is not running for office. The day after the election our primary mission will be the same: to proclaim and give witness to the Gospel in all its fullness. The winners will make some parts of that easier, and some parts incredibly hard. Either way, we'll have a lot of work to do.”

Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski of St. Louis, “We're called to form our conscience in accord with Catholic teaching.” St. Louis Review. October 1, 2020.

“Outside of the bright lights of the stadium, with the fans and the notoriety that come with being an NFL player, the greatest impact that I will make with my time on this earth is remaining dedicated to my primary vocation — helping my family get to heaven.”

Kansas City Chiefs kicker Harrison Butker, “For Chiefs' star kicker, his Catholic faith and family are his priority.” Catholic News Service. October 10, 2020.

“On Monday, it was announced that Ireland would enter 'level 3' of COVID-19 prevention for three weeks — 'level 5' would be a full lockdown. The capital Dublin has been at 'level 3' for two weeks, and County Donegal for a week. At 'Level 3' public worship is suspended — although weddings and funerals can take place with limited numbers — but stores, restaurants, hair salons, and gyms can remain open.”

“Irish bishops 'fully support' authorities after government suspends public worship.” Crux. October 7, 2020.

“One very sad dimension of the election cycle we are witnessing the public denial of candidates' identity as Catholics because of a specific policy position they have taken. Such denials are injurious because they reduce Catholic social teaching to a single issue. But they are offensive because they constitute an assault on the meaning of what it is to be Catholic.”

“Being Catholic means having a grace-filled relationship with God. Being Catholic means loving the Church. Being Catholic means participating in the sacramental life of the church. Being a Catholic means trying to transform the world by the light of the Gospel. To reduce that magnificent, multidimensional gift of God's love to a single question of public policy is repugnant and should have no place in public discourse.”

- Bishop Robert McElroy of San Diego, “Bishop laments questioning of Biden's faith due to abortion policies.” National Catholic Reporter. October 14, 2020.

“A teenage 'computer genius' could be on the path to sainthood after he was beatified by the Catholic Church. Carlo Acutis, who died of leukemia at the age of 15 in 2006, was beatified on Saturday in the town of Assisi, Italy. Beatification is the penultimate step in the sainthood process, and means the candidate can be referred to as "blessed," and that one miracle has been confirmed in his or her name.”

“Teenage 'computer genius' could become the first millennial saint.” CNN. October 13, 2020.

“[I am close to those] impacted by the fires that are devastating so many regions of the planet, as well as to the volunteers and firefighters who risk their lives to extinguish the blazes. I am thinking of the West Coast of the United States, particularly California, and I am also thinking of the central regions of South America, from the Pantanal zone of Paraguay to the banks of the Paraná River in Argentina. Many fires are caused by persistent drought, but there are also those caused by man. May the Lord sustain those who are suffering the consequences of these catastrophes and make us careful to preserve creation.”

“'Gospel is not reserved for a few,' pope says.” National Catholic Reporter. October 13, 2020.

“The Diocese of Camden [New Jersey] has filed for bankruptcy, citing revenue losses because of the millions it paid out to clergy abuse victims and the pandemic.”

“Camden diocese becomes latest to file for bankruptcy.” National Catholic Reporter. October 2, 2020.

“Facing more than 200 lawsuits over sexual abuse allegations, the Diocese of Rockville Centre on Long Island said on Thursday that it filed for bankruptcy, the largest Roman Catholic diocese in the United States to do so.” Facing 200 abuse claims, diocese becomes U.S.'s largest to seek bankruptcy.” New York Times. October 1, 2020.

“Among other Catholic schools, public, charter, and private, Saint Basil Academy has long faced a challenging financial picture, due in part to increased competition among other schools for students and funding and, most recently, the financial burden of the coronavirus pandemic.”

Connie D'Angelo, principal of St. Basil Academy in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania, announcing that the school will not reopen next year. “St. Basil students, alums are devastated after learning the Jenkintown Catholic school will close.” Philadelphia Inquirer. October 8, 2020.

“Give them some food yourselves.”

Luke 9:13

Each year, our parish dedicates a portion of its income to charities and agencies that serve the needs of people in the spirit of Christ, the Gospel message, and the mission of the Catholic Church. This year, our annual outreach program will provide $30,000 to food pantries in Rhode Island.

The pandemic has led to what the Rhode Island Food Bank is now calling a “hunger crisis.” More than 30 million Americans are facing food insecurity, and the need for food among Rhode Islanders has increased 45% over last year.

Last month, we gave $3,000 to McAuley House in Providence. This month, we are giving $3,000 to the Jonnycake Center Food Pantry here in South Kingstown. Last year, the Jonnycake Center provided more than 300,000 pounds of food to those in need, 30,000 meals to school-aged children, and another $32,000 in financial assistance. Last month, the Jonnycake Center was named the Non-Profit Organization of the Year by the Southern Rhode Island Chamber of Commerce.

While our parish outreach program is funded by your regular weekly offering, parishioners are certainly free to “add to the pot” by donating funds to be used solely for our outreach to food pantries. Simply mark your donation (envelope or check) with the word “outreach” before sending it to the office or placing it in the drop box at church.

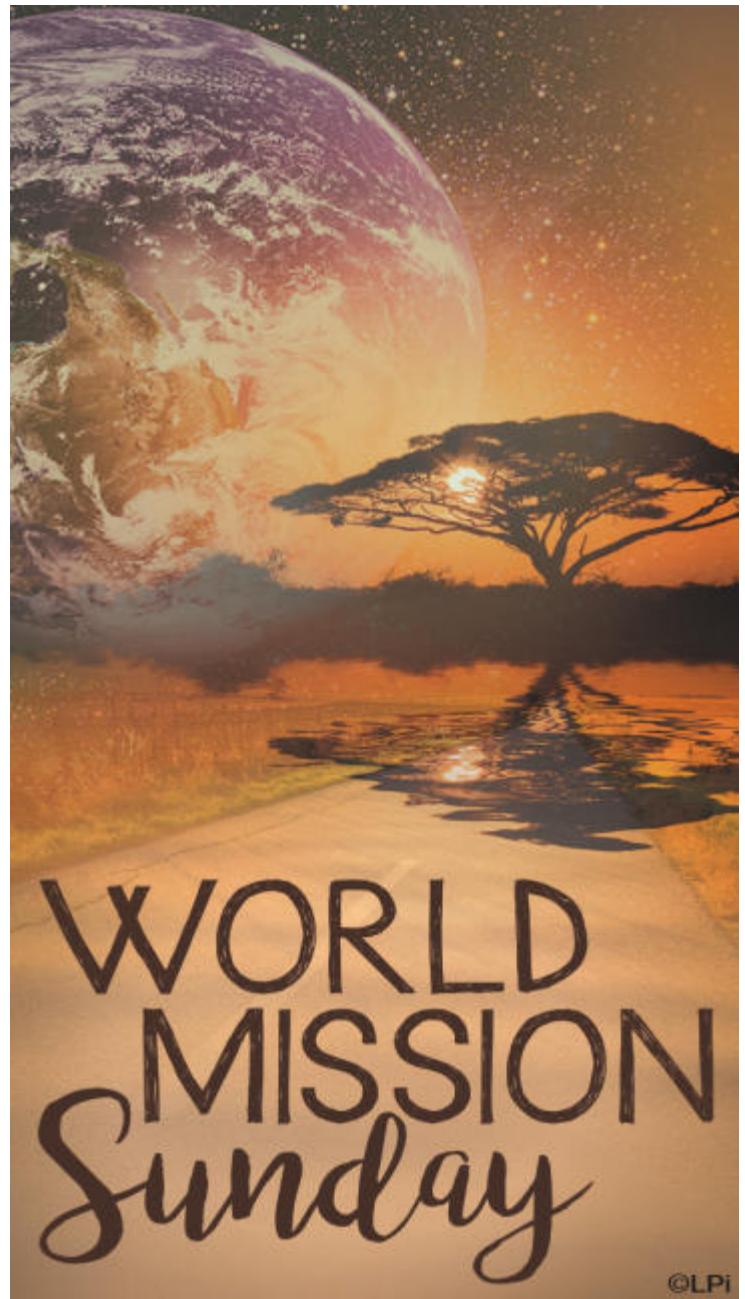

As we share our resources with those in most need around us, may we always be humble and grateful for all that we have.

ONLINE GIVING UPDATE

Our Online Giving is getting an upgrade to a newer, easier-to-use platform! If you currently give online, you will soon be receiving an email with instructions on how to log into the new system. Best of all, your existing payment and donation information will be migrated over so you will not have to set up your gifts again! Keep an eye on your email for more information coming very soon.

PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

Pope Francis, in his message for world Mission Sunday, encourages us with these words: “In this year marked by the suffering and challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic, the missionary journey of the whole Church continues in the light of the words found in the account of the calling of the prophet Isaiah: ‘Here I am, send me,’ Isaiah responds.” (6:8) This is the perennial response to the Lord’s question: “Whom shall I send?”

This weekend’s special collection supports the missionary work of priests, religious and lay ministers in more than 1100 mission posts in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe.

Please keep all the missionaries in your prayers.

(excerpts from Bishop Tobin’s letter, 9/15/20)

REFLECTION

Nobody enjoys paying taxes. Despite our displeasure in being forced to do so, we also realize that the monies generated from taxes allows governments to provide essential services for its people. Corruption really gets our goat, however. When we witness malfeasance, overspending, irresponsibility, and dishonesty in governmental spending, the grave injustices make an already unpleasant and arduous task even more difficult. The inappropriate distribution and use of hard-earned monies can leave a person quite angry and disconnected. It's bad enough the government wants something from me, now God does, too?

God is not concerned necessarily with our money, although its proper use does factor into our faith life. As the payment of secular taxes speaks of our allegiance to the government, our return to God speaks of our allegiance to God. All of creation, even the entire universe, is fashioned in the image and likeness of God. What speaks to God and has meaning and relevance to him? All of creation and indeed our very selves! God delights in us and when we present ourselves back to him, he delights even more! As the payment of secular taxes is designed to secure the equitable distribution of goods and services to all people, so is our return of ourselves to God in gratitude meant to advance God's kingdom here on earth.

When our exclusive and sincere allegiance is given to God, God can use us to set things right and straight again. The wounds of sin distort our relationship and disorder our world. By giving ourselves and all of creation back to God in gratitude, we acknowledge the proper Creator and Author of life for who He is and devote our labors exclusively to God's kingdom and the justice, peace, or order God envisions. In giving back to God all that belongs to God, we set the axis of our lives correctly and put our priorities in proper order. All of our relationships, especially with God, our brothers and sisters, and all of creation are perceived more clearly as they really are. Using, accumulating, wasting, exploiting, hoarding, and self-preservation are no longer necessary.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

In the time of Jesus, a Roman coin bore the image of Caesar and it was precisely this coin that was returned to the emperor in the form of tax. What bears God's image? Scripture tells us that human beings are made in the likeness and image of God. In truth, however, all of creation, even the entire universe, is fashioned in the image of God! Everything radiates Divine Presence and the spark and essence of God's very life exists in all things. God breathes the life of Himself into all things. If we have to give back to civil authorities what speaks to them, then what do we give back to God? While the answer is simple, the implications are profound. We are asked to give back to God our very selves! Ultimately, all creation is in the process of returning to God and is on a journey of finding its final truth and essence in Him. As we continue that journey, all we have, all we are, all we see, and all we are responsible for must be offered back to Him. God is the beginning and the end of all things. Do our lives reflect this Divine allegiance?

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

While in person visits are becoming more difficult, a visit with a Friendly Visitor can still take place by phone. While in person is more satisfying in many ways, a phone visit can help to make the day go by in a more pleasant way. Don't let the restriction of "social distancing" keep you from calling Bonnie at 391-9460 and asking that a Friendly Visitor start to make calls to you by phone until it is safe to once again visit in person.
