Spring is here! Time for Mass Hort's Gardeners' Fair

April 18, 2019, WELLESLEY, MA It must finally be spring if it's time for Mass Hort's Gardeners' Fair and Plant Sale! A variety of vendors will be on site, offering everything you need to plan, dig, plant, and enjoy your home garden space. Allandale Farm, Boston's oldest working farm, will bring a wide selection of heirloom and hybrid tomato plants grown right on the farm! Peppers, eggplants, cucumbers and other starter plants will also be available.

The Gardeners' Fair will take place on Saturday, May 11, 2019, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Massachusetts Horticultural Society's The Gardens at Elm Bank, Route 16, in Wellesley. The Gardeners' Fair is an opportunity to find rare and unusual perennials, trees and shrubs; ready-to-plant herbs and vegetables; and tomato varieties by the dozens. It's also a chance to hear talks by experts, find unique garden tools, garden ornaments and accessories, as well as other gardening necessities. The fair features sales of unique specimens from local plant societies including the Herb Society Plant Sale, and an Ask the Master Gardener booth hosted by the Massachusetts Master Gardeners. Admission is $5 per car for the general public, free for Mass Hort members.

The Gardeners' Fair provides fun and shopping for the whole family! In the afternoon, we'll have live music, a food truck, and wine and beer. Celebrate International Migratory bird day with special family activities as part of our Bird Bonanza throughout the garden-- learn how to make your outdoor spaces more welcoming for the birds! Be sure to plan a visit.
