This event allows us to celebrate the Holiday Season with extended family while also helping those who are less fortunate. Since 1899, Catholic Charities Brooklyn and Queens has been providing 160+ programs and integrated services for children, youth, adults, seniors, those struggling with mental illness, and the formerly homeless. Catholic Charities is also one of the largest faith-based providers of affordable housing in New York City, providing 4,567 units of housing for low-income seniors, families, and the formerly homeless throughout Brooklyn and Queens.
