

An LPTS Lifelong Learning Opportunity

CHAOS MINISTRY:

INTERGENERATIONAL WORSHIP IN SMALL CHURCHES

HYBRID WORKSHOP

Learn Creative Ways to Engage and Foster Broad Participation of a Full Range of Ages and Embodiments in Art-Filled Worship Experiences.

THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 2026

HYBRID: On Campus at 1044 Alta Vista Rd., Louisville, KY 40204 and Online via Zoom

- 10:00 AM - 12:00 NOON (EDT)
- Cost: $50/person
- Register by April 28, 2026 at LPTS.edu/ChaosMinistry

Instructor:

Marcus Hong

Louisville Seminary's Director of Lifelong Learning and Associate Professor of Practical Theology, and Director of The Sun-Walking Fellowship

This Lifelong Learning hybrid workshop is designed for faith leaders—especially those serving small or limited-resource churches. You don't need a big budget or a large team to engage and foster broad participation in your worship services. You just need a willingness to try something new. In this workshop, you will:

- Discover simple, creative ways to make worship more engaging
- Learn how to include people of all ages and abilities
- Explore hands-on, art-filled practices you can use right away
- Connect with other leaders who share your passion

RESERVE YOUR SPOT
REGISTER BY 4/28/26
Scan the code or visit
LPTS.edu/ChaosMinistry:

WORKSHOPS | BOOK STUDIES | LECTURES
CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS
ONLINE, HYBRID + IN PERSON LEARNING
AND EVENTS

LPTS.edu/lifelong\_learning

