Teacher of the Year Award Information Page

Submission Deadline: November 9, 2018

Please note that the following application is particularly detailed as it is based on the application for the National Agriculture in the Classroom Organization's annual Excellence in Teaching about Agriculture National Award Program. This allows us to quickly submit the winning applications for consideration on the national level. If selected, you will be requested to provide a detailed lesson plan. Additional supplemental information and explanations from the national award program may be found at <http://www.agclassroom.org/teacher/award.htm>.

PURPOSE: to recognize the exceptional efforts of elementary and secondary teachers who incorporate agricultural concepts in their curriculum.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Certified teachers currently engaged in classroom instruction in the Pre-K through 12 levels
- Teachers must be integrating agricultural concepts into traditionally non-agricultural curricula
- Applications may be submitted by teachers themselves, by a coworker or by an administrator.

REVIEW PROCESS:

Applications will be evaluated by a review committee who will score based on a rubric of 100 possible points. Scores will be averaged for each application.

RUBRIC:

25 points - Creativity and Utilization of Agricultural Information

- The degree to which sound agricultural concepts have been infused into the classroom curriculum.
- References should be made to the creative methods utilized in advancing student learning.

25 points - Interdisciplinary Approach

- The degree to which agricultural concepts have been included in a variety of subjects or topics.
- Value will be placed on the approach which teaches agriculture across the curriculum or subject.

25 points - Student Impact

- Evidence of positive change in behavior, student attitudes and overall learning.

25 Points - Overall Impact, Longevity of the Program

- Evidence of historical and new agricultural concepts introduced. This may include food systems.
- Sustainable living, local agriculture, carbon footprint, community impact, nutrition, and more.

WINNERS:

One teacher will be selected as the award recipient.

They will be recognized at the Granite State Association of FFA Conference in April of 2019.

The winners' application will be submitted to the National Agriculture in the Classroom for consideration in their Excellence in Teaching about Agriculture Award program. More information can be found at <http://www.agclassroom.org/teacher/award.htm>

APPLICATION:

Application packages are to be submitted electronically at <https://form.jotform.com/82386813618162> by the teacher or an outside party no later than midnight of November 9, 2018. They will be reviewed by the New Hampshire Agriculture in the Classroom Board of Directors during the month of November. Winner will be notified by November 30, 2018.

The application package consists of the following. PLEASE SAVE EACH DOCUMENT INDIVIDUALLY FOR UPLOADING TO THE ONLINE APPLICATION PACKAGE.
