

PAID SPRING INTERNSHIP

SEEKING METCO STUDENTS GRADES 10-11-12

METCO B.E.A.T.

BOSTON

EDUCATION
ACTIVISM
TOUR

Reveal the struggles that aren't in the history textbooks—right from the streets where they happened.

METCO Headquarters is seeking a small group of scholars and storytellers to research and present a tour of Boston that uncovers the history of activism for educational equality, including the founding of METCO itself.

Runs January 14 - June 6

Tuesdays & Thursdays 3:30-5:30pm,
Saturdays 10am-2pm in Roxbury
(dates and times subject to change)

Stipend: $80/week

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Learn the history of Boston's education activists
- Create a tour that explores the untold struggles to equitable public schools
- Present the tour to suburban students and teachers

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Research
- Public speaking
- Marketing
- Leadership
- Financial literacy

DEADLINE: DECEMBER 18

LEARN MORE AND APPLY AT metcoinc.org/BEAT