About the Series:

Healthy Living with Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI) is a support and educational series for people with MCI and their care partners. Classes offer attendees guidance and science-backed strategies for living and coping with a diagnosis of MCI.

Join Nathaniel Chin, MD, and Bonnie Nuttkinson, MS, from the Wisconsin Alzheimer's Disease Research Center, along with Jennifer McAlister, BA, from the Alzheimer's Association Wisconsin Chapter, and guest speakers, to learn more about Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI). Each program will end with a Q&A session.
