Specialty Classes Held In Memory of Dave Ruby

In 2021 the Paint Horse community lost a long-time friend and APHA State Director, Dave Ruby. Dave was a fixture at SJPHC shows, as a ring steward, gate person, and general wealth of knowledge. He always had time to help exhibitors, offering his trademark smile with each bit of advice. He never accepted anything in return. We can take a lesson from his willingness to encourage people to show.

ADDITIONAL CHROME CASH ENTRY FEE $20/CLASS

INCLUDE BOTH CLASS AND CHROME CASH CLASS # ON YOUR ENTRIES

YOU MUST PRE-ENTER FOR A CHANCE AT THE MONEY – NO GATE ADS FOR CHROME CASH

The Chrome Cash Entry Fee allows you to be eligible to WIN the Chrome Cash on DESIGNATED Chrome Cash classes. You are not required to enter the concurrent Chrome Cash portion of any classes but MUST enter if you are wanting a chance at the "money."

Chrome Cash classes will be held concurrently with their regular APHA Class. To be eligible for the Chrome Cash, an additional entry fee must be paid. You must pre-enter Chrome Cash classes at the office. Each exhibitor entering a Chrome Cash class must complete and sign a W9 form in the office, prior to receiving any payout. If no cash is won, the W9 will be shredded.

Each Chrome Cash class has $500 available. The payout percentage is the same in all Chrome Cash classes.

- 50% – $250 to the overall class average winner.
- 30% - $150 to the overall second place class average winner.
- 20% - $100 to the overall third place class average winner.

There are no minimum entries needed in a class to award the Chrome Cash. If there is one entry in a $500 class, the winner will still receive 50% of the CC of $250. If two entries, the winner still receives 50% and the second place 30%, $250 / $150, respectively.

Ties: Since the class average winners COULD result in a tie – Monies will be added together and split between the exhibitors that were tied. There will not be a "call judge" or "tie-breaker judge" each day. For example, two exhibitors tied for 1st place. $250 and $150 added together, with each exhibitor receiving $200 each.

Payouts: Payout checks will be mailed after the show. This allows time for the office to audit the Chrome Cash classes and overall show results. Payout checks will be payable to the exhibitor in the class. Remember, a completed W9 must be on file with the show office before any payout can be made/mailed.

Jason Long PERFORMANCE HORSES

Pattern Glow Up Clinic

APHA/AQHA Trainer, Jason Gkitsas-Long, will provide tips for improving your presentation and polishing your performance in the main pattern classes including Equitation, Horsemanship, and Showmanship.

New Arena Zone Format – All the things, all at once!

The arena will have zones with poles, cones, and rail space. This offers the opportunity for practicing elements of Trail, Versatility, Horsemanship, Showmanship, and Equitation all at the same time. Jason has a fun and educational approach, sure to give you a new sense of confidence and excitement to continue your journey with your horse. This is going to be so cool! and the best part is IT'S FREE!

- Participants are required to arrive at the arena 15 minutes prior to start for introductions and to confirm you have all tack necessary. Come to the arena with your horse tacked up. Bring a show halter with you for later.
- If your horse requires any preparation/longing before working, please schedule accordingly.
- Remember, this clinic will be mid-day in August. It will be hot, even in the shade.
- Safe attire & footwear are required (not show attire).
- Participants agree to allow SJPHC to use all photos/video taken during the event for promotion of Paint Horses.
