Delta Township District Library's 2018 Summer Reading Program a Success

Thank you to everyone who participated in and contributed to DTDL's 2018 Summer Reading Program "Libraries Rock," making it another successful year. Thanks to the Friends of the Library for sponsoring the summer program. The library had musicians and singers all summer with a Library Concert Series and featured youth acts in our sixth annual Youth Talent Show. DTDL also partnered with Waverly Community Schools and the Meet Up & Eat Up™ program to serve free lunches to children 18 years and younger on Fridays.

Thanks also to the many Delta Township, Grand Ledge, and Greater Lansing businesses who donated prizes or supplies, including: Buffalo Wild Wings, Cheddars, Chick-fil-A, Chipotle, Delta Twp. Aquatic Center, DeLuca's, District5 Extreme Air Sports, Eastwood Towne Center, Edru, Impression 5, Lansing Lugnuts, Meijer, Potter Park Zoo, Red Cedar Gymnastics, Royal Scot Golf & Bowl, Twisters Soft Serve Ice Cream, Walmart, and Zap Zone Fun Center.

Thanks to the many performers and presenters who shared their knowledge and skills this summer. Special thanks to the Delta Township Senior Council's Reader's Theatre group, Linda Vainner and Waverly Community Schools food service staff, Eileen Bostwick and Ruger, Stephanie Woinowsk and Hobbes, and Ben Hassenger and Music is the Foundation.

Plan for another fun summer at the library in 2019. The theme is A Universe of Stories.
