

ADULT EDUCATION

FALL 2022

Introduction to Mussar

Taught by Rabbi Richard Camras

Tuesdays, Nov. 1 – Dec. 13 | 5:00 – 6:30 PM | In-Person Only

Begin a personal exploration of Mussar – how a focus on one's character traits can lead to deeper and richer relationships and a more ethical life.

Oy to Joy

Taught by Rabbinic Intern Avram Ellner

Tuesdays, Nov. 1, 8, 15, and 29 | 7:00–8:30 PM | In-Person Only

In some ways, "Oy" is the starting point of any Jewish conversation, whether in the beit midrash or at the local deli. In saying "Oy!" we're doing more than just kvetching – we're noticing the gap between the world as it is and the world as it could be. How do we close the gap? Join Rabbinic Intern Avram Ellner for a series of thought-provoking classes which explore this process of how we can navigate the path from "Oy!" to "Joy!" in our lives.

ScholarStream Series 2: What's Your Burning Question?

Wednesdays, Oct. 26, Nov. 2, 9, and 16 | 5:00 – 6:00 PM PST | Online via USCJ

Remix Judaism: Preserving Tradition in a Diverse World

With author and professor Roberta Rosenthal Kwall

Sunday, Nov. 20 | 10:00 – 11:30 AM | In-Person and on Zoom

Professor Roberta Rosenthal Kwall discusses the thesis of her widely acclaimed new book, "Remix Judaism: Preserving Tradition in a Diverse World," as it applies to individuals, parents and grandparents seeking to deepen their connection to Jewish tradition outside of strict compliance with the rules of Jewish law. Book available for purchase on the event page. For those who are joining us in-person, the program begins with a light breakfast.
