

“New Jersey’s Aging Forests – Consequences and Remedies”

New Jersey Forestry Association
44th Annual Meeting and Member Program
Saturday, March 16, 2019
Cook Campus Center, Rutgers University, 59 Biel Road, New Brunswick

8:30 to 9:00	Registration and Continental Breakfast
9:00 to 9:15	Welcome Andy Kimm, President, New Jersey Forestry Association
9:15 to 10:15	Our changing forest landscape Jim Finley, Penn State Extension (retired)
10:15-10:30	Refreshment Break and Silent Auction
10:30 – 11:30	Aging Forests: Remedies and what landowners should include in their plans (panel) Doug Tavella (consulting forester), Dylon Borger (consulting forester), Kristen Meistrell (NJ Audubon Society Stewardship Dept.), NJSFS (invited)
11:30 – 12 noon	Forest management funding sources (EQIP) Evan Madlinger (NRCS)
12:00 to 1:30	Lunch, Annual Business Meeting & Silent Auction
1:30 to 1:45	New Jersey State Forest Service Report Jon Klischies
1:45 to 2:30	Forest threats updates Rosa Yoo, NJ State Forest Service
2:30 to 3:00	Break and silent auction closing
3:00 to 3:45	Forest stewardship and woodland assessment: Updates Andy Kimm (NJFA) and Jon Klischies (NJSFS)
3:45 pm	Chainsaw Raffle Drawing, 50/50 Cash Raffle Drawing, Silent Auction & Wrap Up

This program has applied for NJ Taxation, Continuing Education Credits, Community Forestry, LTE/LTCO and SAF CFE Credits