

CHAIRity

— for CVEM —

Are you a skilled artist? A DIY enthusiast? A yard sale fanatic?
WE NEED YOU & WE NEED YOUR CHAIRS!

What is a Chairity?

CHAIRity for CVEM, to take place at Arts in the Park on Sunday, May 21, will feature unique, one-of-a-kind chairs for sale, created and donated by local artists and friends of CVEM.

What is the cause?

Proceeds from the CHAIRity will benefit Chattahoochee Valley Episcopal Ministry (CVEM), a nonprofit outreach ministry of regional Episcopal churches. Striving to serve Christ in all people, CVEM serves families and children in need, advocates for racial harmony, promotes interfaith dialogue, and forms partnerships to build stronger communities.

How can you contribute?

We are looking for chairs of any type with a bit of a creative touch. It can be a chair you build, decorate, repurpose or just a neat chair you've collected. It can even be a chair that we can give to someone to decorate. Chairs can be any size, usable or not...there really are no rules. Just have fun with it!

So what's next?

Let us know if you're creating a chair for us by contacting anyone listed below. Chairs can be delivered to CVEM the week of May 15-18 at 1120 Lockwood Ave., 31906, between 9 am-1 pm. To make arrangements for delivery at a different time, please call us at 706.327.0400. Feel free to join us at Arts in the Park in Lakebottom Park Sunday, May 21 from Noon to 6 pm. Thank you for your support!

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Ginia McPhearson 706.887.8080

Twila Kirkland 706.577.4823

CVEM 706.327.0400 or e-mail
info@cvemjubilee.org

