

Drucye Cox was born in Reynolds, Georgia and has lived in Warner Robins, Georgia, Newport News, Virginia, Mainz, Germany, and has lived in Columbus, Georgia since 1983. She has two sons: Chris, who graduated from Columbus State University and lives in Columbus and Jason, who graduated from University of Georgia and lives in Chicago. She has one grandchild, Liza, who is five years old. Her sister, Lynn, and Lynn's husband Kenny, also are members of St. Nicholas along with Lynn's daughters Michelle and Kim. Liza was baptized at St. Nicholas in November 2014.

Drucye attended Columbus State University and worked in federal civil service 27 years in several capacities, the last as an Information Systems Specialist in the IT Department at Martin Army Community Hospital. She retired in 2007 and worked part time in Pine Mountain for four years at Country Gardens and Sweet Home Antiques. She continues to work for Sweet Home Enterprises as web master. Drucye's hobbies include traveling, writing, web design, and genealogy. She especially loves spending lots of time with her granddaughter, Liza.

Drucye has been a member of St. Nicholas since 2005. She has served as a Lay Eucharistic Minister and Reader, chair of the Communications Committee, a member of the 2015 Stewardship Committee, a Parish Life Committee member, a member of the Altar Guild, and she is a former Vestry member.