

UUCUC Death with Dignity Group will show the 2011 Sundance Grand Jury Prize Winning Film, "How to Die in Oregon" at the Champaign Public Library, this coming Saturday, August 19, at 1:00 p.m..

In 1994, Oregon made it a legal right for people who are dying to cut short their suffering with a doctor's aid. That legal right also exists now in the states of California, Washington, Colorado, Vermont, and Montana, throughout Canada, and in several European countries.

This can be a difficult topic and is controversial to some. We invite you to see this film and join the conversation. Questions? Please contact Karen Retzer at deathwithdignity@uucuc.org.
